Have You Something You Wish To Swap?

For a limited time, or until the results are indicated by its use, the Bee-Nugget offers to conduct a free "swap" department in the Classified Ads. Anyone unable to pay for advertising, who has something in the way of produce, labor or products of any kind that he wishes to "swap" for something else he needs, will be entitled to the free use of this department. Whether you are a subscriber to the Bee-Nugget or not, make use of this department. Perhaps it will be found of value to some people who otherwise find it difficult to sell things they have for cash. Obviously, the use of this is limited to purely "swap" arrangements, but it is cheerfully given if it will help anyone in need of such service.

MARRIED DURING THE WEEK

Laughlin-Sava.

The many friends of Louis Laughlin will be surprised and pleased to hear of the announcement of his marriage January 8, 1933, in Detroit, Mich., to Miss Marusa Sava of Chicago. Mr. Laughlin was in Chehalis Saturday, last week end, between trains, for a short visit. He is on a tour at present with Madam Maria Kurenko, noted coloratura soprano and opera singer who is touring this country, and Mr. Laughlin is her accompanist on the piano. From here they went to Phoenix, Ariz., and on through the southern states, where concerts will be given. The tour will end March 27, when they will return to Chicago. Mrs. Louis Laughlin is a young and talented vocalist, a pupil of M. Kurenko, husband of Madam Kurenko. Funeral services were held Sunday March 5, at the Mossyrock church for Mrs. Dulceola Workman, 106 years old, who was probably the oldest person living in the Pacific northwest. Rev. E. L. Whisler of Allene officiated, burial being in the Mossyrock cemetery on Klilkitat prairie. Her death occurred March 4 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Rinda Faulkner, at Riffe. Mrs. Workman, who was the daughter of James and Rebecca Roberts, was born on Tug river, in Pike county, Kentucky, in 1827. Her mother is said by daughters of Mrs. Workman to also have lived to upwards of one hundred years. It is recounted by them that even at that advanced age she was able to thread needles without use of glasses, her eyesight being unimpaired.

One of the most interesting things in connection with the life of Mrs. Workman is the unusually long list of more than 267 progeny which survives her. At an early age she was married to Mike Ford, who served in the Mexican War. To them two daughters were born, both of whom, Mrs. Dollah Butler and Mrs. Winnie Bauer, are yet living in West Virginia and are well along in the eighties. In 1847, when 20 years old, she married Shelton Workman in West Virginia. Mr. Workman, who served in the Union army in the Civil War, died about 1870.

son of Bremerton; also two sons, Henry Workman of Woodland and Jim Workman of Riffe. Relatives in the Riffe district have a record of ninety-one grandchildren, 153 great-grandchildren and fourteen of the fifth generation who live in the Pacific northwest, most of them in Lewis county. There are also a number of others in West Virginia but the exact number is unknown locally. Another daughter, Armanda, was also born to Mrs. Workman when she had reached the age of 54 years but died when twenty years of age; and one other daughter, Dora Workman, also long previously had preceded her in death.

Mrs. Workman enjoyed excellent health all her life, being blessed with a splendid physique. Rarely was she ill from any cause and up to the last her mind was alert and active. It is related of her that she had an unusual memory for dates and events in her life and she was most interesting as a conversationalist. In her earlier years she underwent many hardships, plowing in the field with oxen as a young woman and even as late as her sixtieth year. To a granddaughter, Mrs. Esther Blankenship of Ethel she related how, during Civil War days, food at times was limited to plantain weed greens, cooked without seasoning of any kind, and Mrs. Workman's comment on it

Unemployed League To Give Dance March 22

The Unemployed League of Chehalis will give a dance at the Moose hall in Chehalis Wednesday evening, March 22. Advance tickets are being sold and a large attendance is expected. The proceeds of the dance will be used to replenish the cash fund of the league which is necessary in order to carry on the work of the league where cash is essential. The public generally is urged to give support to this dance, as the league has demonstrated that it is deserving and by its existence has prevented many families from being thrown into the streets of the county.
